

2010 Special Administrations

AHA Certification Examinations

For your convenience, the following special administrations of AHA Certification Examinations are scheduled for 2010. To apply, use the application posted at goamp.com for the specific exam date or the application contained in the Candidate Handbook and Application available from this web site. On the application, under "Examination Type," check "special domestic administration" and enter the date of the Examination. Online application is not available for these administrations.

Please note that application deadlines are 4 weeks before the Examination, so be sure to apply early. Candidates submitting exam applications after the "must be received by" date will not be eligible to take the exam. Onsite registrations will not be accepted.

For additional information, please contact the AHA-CC at certification@aha.org or 312/422-3711.
