

Frontier Extended Stay Clinic (FESC) Cooperative Agreement Program

Office of Rural Health Policy, Health Resources and Services Administration (HRSA)

<http://ruralhealth.hrsa.gov/funding/fesc.htm>

The purpose of the Frontier Extended Stay Clinic (FESC) Cooperative Agreement Program is to examine the effectiveness and appropriateness of a new type of provider, the FESC, in providing health care services in certain remote locations.

DEADLINE: Unspecified

Eligibility	Funding	Requirements	Additional Information
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> FESCs are defined as clinics that are: 1) located in communities which are at least 75 miles away from the closest hospital or are inaccessible by public road and 2) designed to address the needs of patients who are unable to be transferred to an acute care facility because of adverse weather conditions or who need monitoring and observation for a limited period of time 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The estimated amount for total funding in FY 2007 was $1,500,000. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Details on the RFP and conditions of participation can be found here: ftp://ftp.hrsa.gov/ruralhealth/FESC_RFP.pdf 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The last deadline for this program was July 2, 2007. The list of FY 2007 grantees can be found here: For more information, contact Carrie Cochran, ORHP, at 301-443-0502 or at ccochran@hrsa.gov

