

Roger G. Larson Memorial Lecture Summary of Speakers

Date	Speakers/Topics
4/30/13	Thomas C. Dolan, PhD, FACHE, CAE, President and Chief Executive Officer, American College of Healthcare Executives “The Leadership Demands of Healthcare Reform”
5/8/12	Stuart H. Altman, M.D., Ph.D., Professor, National Health Policy, Heller Graduate School for Social Policy & Management, Brandeis University “Accountable Care Organizations and Bundled Payments. Are They The Latest New New Things; What Happened to The Old New Things?”
4/12/11	Risa Lavizzo-Mourey, M.D., President and CEO, The Robert Wood Johnson Foundation “Accountability – The Unicorn in Our Garden”
4/27/10	David Gergen, Commentator, Editor, Teacher, Public Servant, Best Selling Author, Presidential Advisor for 30 years “Eyewitness to Power: Leadership in America”
4/28/09	Donald M. Berwick, MD, MPP, President & CEO, Institute for Healthcare Improvement, Cambridge, MA “Health Leaders and the ‘ Triple Aim ”
4/8/08	Michael Beschloss, Historian and Author “Presidential Courage”
5/8/07	Sister Mary Roch Rocklage, RSM, Chair of the Sponsor Council, Sisters of Mercy Health System, St. Louis, MO “Habits of the Heart”
5/2/06	Karen Davis, Ph.D., President, The Commonwealth Fund, New York, NY “A Patient-Centered Health System”
5/3/05	Regina Benjamin, MD, MBA, Bayou La Batre Rural Health Clinic, AL “Making a Difference in People’s Lives”
5/3/04	John W. Kenagy, MD, MPA, Director, Kenagy & Associates, LLC "Fixing a Broken Health Care System: Why There is no Toyota in U.S. Health Care"
4/28/03	Samuel Thier, MD, Professor of Medicine & Health Care Policy, Harvard Medical School & former President/CEO, Partners HealthCare System “Marriage Counseling for Hospital Mergers”
4/8/02	Gail Warden, President and CEO, Henry Ford Health System “Building Upon Our Values: Health Care’s Promises to Its Patients and Communities”

4/30/01 Hamilton Jordan, Former Chief of Staff, Carter Administration
"No Such Thing as a Bad Day"

1/31/00 Dr. Stanley M. Davis, Consultant and Author
"Preparing Health Care for the New Economy"

2/1/99 Scott S. Parker, Retired President and CEO, Intermountain Health Care
"A Letter to my Son, Tom"

2/2/98 Senator Mark Hatfield (Retired)
"The Need to Adequately Fund Medical Education and Research"

9/29/97 Reed Tuckson, M.D.,
Senior Vice President, Professional Standards, American Medical Assn.
"Improving Community Health and the Quality of Life"

8/5/96 Russell Coile, Health Care Futurist
"Competition, Capitation and Collaboration: Adapting to Changes in Health Care"

8/21/95 Emily Friedman, Health Policy Analyst, Writer/Lecturer
"The Past as Future: What We Can Learn from the History of Health Systems"

8/8/94 David C. Thomasma, Ph.D., Professor and Director, Medical Humanities Program Loyola University Medical Center
"Ethical Issues of Health Care Reform"

8/9/93 Rob McCord, Executive Director, Congressional Institute for the Future
"Health Care Reform and Transitioning from Medicine to Health"

7/27/92 Nancy K. Austin, president, Nancy K. Austin, Inc.
"Quality and Service through Innovation and Collaboration"

7/29/91 The Honorable Dan Rostenkowski
U.S. House of Representatives, Chairman, Ways & Means Committee
"The Politics of Health Care Reform"

7/30/90 C. Everett Koop, M.D., former U.S. Surgeon General
Chairman, National Safe Kids Campaign
"The State of the Nation's Health"

7/31/89 Merlin (Monte) K. DuVal, M.D., Senior Vice President, Medical Affairs, Samaritan Health Services
"As Values Change, Can Culture be Far Behind?"

8/8/88 Robert H. Ebert, M.D., Special Program Consultant, The Robert Wood Johnson Foundation
"Looking Ahead at American Health Care"