

Vincent G. Capece, Jr.

Vincent G. Capece, Jr., is President and CEO of Middlesex Hospital in Middletown, CT. Mr. Capece has been an executive in the health care industry for over 25 years. During this time, he has developed expertise in strategic plan development, operations and finance. Prior to his current position, Mr. Capece held a number of different executive positions at Middlesex Hospital since 1998, including Senior Vice President and Chief Operating Officer, Senior Vice President of Finance and Operations, and Vice President of Finance and Chief Financial Officer. Before joining Middlesex Hospital, he worked at Bridgeport Hospital, where he was responsible for overseeing all aspects of that hospital's financial operations, including internal and external financial reporting for the hospital and its affiliates, a position he held since 1990. From 1985 to 1990, Mr. Capece worked in the health care audit division at Arthur Andersen LLP.

Mr. Capece received a Master's in Business Administration and a B.S. in Accounting, magna cum laude, from the University of Connecticut. He is also a Certified Public Accountant.

Mr. Capece is currently Chairman of the Board of the Middlesex County Chamber of Commerce, and a board member of the Connecticut Hospital Association, the Community Foundation of Middlesex County, and the Middlesex United Way. His professional memberships include the American College of Healthcare Executives, the Healthcare Financial Management Association and the Connecticut Society of Certified Public Accountants.

Rev. 8/12/15