

Carl Josehart

Senior Vice President, CEO, Post-Acute Care Services

An experienced healthcare executive who began his career as a clinician in social work, Carl Josehart joined TIRR Memorial Hermann as chief executive officer in 2006. Since his arrival, he and his leadership team have advanced the hospital's U.S. News & World Report Best Hospitals ranking from number 5 in the nation to number 2. Today, TIRR Memorial Hermann is a national leader in medical rehabilitation and research, and a model for interdisciplinary rehabilitation services, patient care, education and research.

As system executive for post acute care services for the Memorial Hermann Healthcare System, he has a lead role in setting standards for high-quality, evidence-based rehabilitation care across the System.

Sandra Lloyd

Director of Business Development, TIRR Memorial Hermann

Sandra Lloyd MN, RN is the Director of Business Development for TIRR Memorial Hermann. She received her Master's degree in Nursing Administration from Emory University. Sandra has 12 years of experience at TIRR Memorial Hermann in various operational and development leadership roles. Currently she is responsible for marketing and growth for TIRR Memorial Hermann and the Memorial Hermann Rehabilitation Network. Included in this is the development and oversight of the Skilled Nursing Network and the Home Health Network.

Kayla Yorton

Physician Liaison, TIRR Memorial Hermann

Kayla is a physician liaison with TIRR Memorial Hermann. She is assigned the Skilled Nursing and Home Health Networks. She joined Memorial Hermann in 2009 and has held positions with Memorial Hermann Health Solutions and Memorial Hermann Physician Network/Accountable Care Organization.

