

Why celebrate community health improvement?

Raise awareness and increase understanding of the vital role of upstream prevention and community-based strategies to improve health at the population health level.

80%

Percentage of health that health behaviors, socioeconomic factors and the physical environment account for.

Source: County Health Rankings and Roadmaps

85%

of the nation's hospitals report strong or total commitment to population health.

Source: American Hospital Association

90%

of hospitals agree that population health aligns with their mission.

Source: American Hospital Association

91%

of hospitals have one or more community partnerships.

Source: American Hospital Association

