The COVID-19 Snapshot is the American Hospital Association’s look at what America’s hospitals and frontline workers are facing as they provide care during the public health emergency. America’s hospitals and health systems continue to face historic challenges, including unprecedented financial pressures. It is vitally important that hospitals and health systems receive further support and resources to ensure that they can continue to deliver critical care for patients and communities.

FROM THE FRONT LINES

“I just represent one small hospital, but I can tell you my ICU has been completely full, staffed out, for weeks, if not months.”
Sam Ratermann M.D. | Medical director of hospital program, INTEGRIS Grove Hospital, Grove, Oklahoma
